

NEW STUDENT AND TRANSFER ORIENTATION 2022 TENTATIVE SCHEDULE

University of Pittsburgh | Johnstown

Wednesday, August 24, 2022

10 a.m. -2 p.m.

Residential First Year Student Move-In

You will receive email from Housing and Residence Life regarding move-in procedures. Also, please refer often to the website regarding move-in, what to bring, etc. We are so glad to have you here!

10 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Polaroids with PJ and Legacy Photos

Join members of our Alumni Board for a quick move-in day pic! And, if you are a Pitt or a Pitt- Johnstown family, we definitely want to take your legacy photo! This is casual and will be the first in your Pitt bookend – we will take one of you again at Commencement! Join us at the gazebo on University Square – come as you are – we can't wait to meet you.

11 a.m. – 2p.m.

Lunch

You are welcome to grab a bite on campus while you are getting settled. At check-in, we will give you tickets for lunch

2 p.m. – 4 p.m.

Free time

Unpack, visit local vendors or University Bookstore

It is recommended that all loved ones depart campus no later than 3:30 p.m. so that new student programming may begin.

4 p.m.- 6:30 p.m.

Meet, Greet, and Eat

Your Resident Assistants and Orientation Leaders will be in your halls at 4 p.m. to gather your groups and show you where you will be spending the next few days with new student orientation. You will also head to dinner together and have a Residence Life meeting to talk about what it is like to live in a residential community at Pitt-Johnstown. Complete details will be available at check-in.

Please note that your meal plans will begin with this meal. You will need your student ID at all times.

8 JOHN RUSH

Live Music with John Rush/ Dessert/ Yard Games

We absolutely love great music at Pitt-Johnstown. Join us in the University Square (near the gazebo) and enjoy the music of John Rush. John is a favorite among our students on campus and is the perfect person to welcome you on your first night. He is billed as the Human Spotify because he knows hours upon hours of songs. Come listen to John or even try your hand at a song or two! More information about John and this evening's event is on the events calendar. Enjoy!

Commuter Student Welcome Meeting

Blackington Hall 138

This session is for students (no guests please) who will be commuting to campus. At this session, we will give you the tips and tricks to campus life both in and out of the classroom. Fellow commuters will offer their success stories and how they overcame challenges within their first year. It is during this session that you will receive your orientation group assignment and meet your group! We will distribute Student IDS for our commuter students at this time.

9 a.m.- 10 a.m.

Morning Yoga

Campus Mall (if raining - ZOOM)

This morning recreation opportunity is provided to get us stretched and ready to tackle the day!

10:15 a.m.

Orientation Group Meeting

Classrooms in Biddle

Your Orientation Leaders will "scoop the groups" at 9:45 a.m. so we can all start on time in the classroom. You will meet more people in your official Orientation groups, and your orientation leaders will review the schedule of the day and talk to you about the importance of your choices with regard to your physical health, mental health, brain health and academic success. So, bring your positive vibes and your questions regarding Pitt-Johnstown. They are here to help!

11:15 a.m.- 12:30 p.m. Leave No Doubt: David Coleman

Pasquerilla Performing Arts Center (PPAC)

One of our favorite speakers for new student orientation is back! Join us in welcoming David Coleman as he shares his program "Leave No Doubt: Be the Team Captain of Your Life!" There is no better way to kick off this program than with our friend, David!

David will share a message of student resilience, setting goals, owning your experience academically and socially, and talk through how to serve as an active bystander on campus. We will laugh, work together, and learn a lot!

denotes optional

12:30 p.m. – 2 p.m. BBQ & A Campus Mall

Join us in the University Mall near the Mountain Cat for a great lunch with your orientation groups.

2 p.m. – 5 p.m. Academic Success in a College Environment

Your Orientation Leader will provide you a student perspective on being successful in the classroom. Bring your class schedules with you (on your phone or a hard copy!) and we will walk your classes, introduce you to campus resources, and prepare you to achieve in your academic discipline. This session will cover all you need to know about finding resources, getting support in and out of the classroom, and learn how our students navigate life at Pitt-Johnstown regarding academic affairs.

You will interact with the Library Staff, check out the Academic Resource Center, and connect with Handshake so you are able to connect with internships when the time is right!

You will also travel to the Engineering and Science Auditorium and meet with members of our Pitt Police to learn how to keep yourself and others safe in your new environment. You may just win some prizes (including a parking pass!) at this event.

This session has a lot of info and really helps you understand how academic life is different in college than in high school- can't wait to help answer your questions!

We will also talk about safety on campus and how to protect yourself and others with campus resources.

5 p.m. – 7 p.m. Dinner in shifts PJ's Dining Hall

7 p.m. – 10 p.m. Casino Night "Welcome to Fabulous Pitt-Johnstown" University Square

Join the early arrival students, faculty, staff, and students for a casino night under the stars!

While we do not play for money, we do play for prizes, so bring a new friend with you and enjoy!

This event is truly social in nature and optional, but we would love to see you there!

Snacks provided. If it rains, we will be in the Wellness Center.
